RE: Objection to Claim # 3078

I hereby file an objection to my previous claim for Case # 17-03283-LTS

And Case # 17-03566-LTS, since the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico mentions that Ownership or any other pretext as to these Bonds not being the Responsibility of this entity, and they were the ones who created this Company or Entity to Administer the same (The Bonds) and they did not file any objection. They issued the Bonds, received the money loaned by us the Creditors, and they misused the same or the money and did not know how to Administer it and now they do not want to be responsible for the same and they do not want to pay. Let them be responsible.

I have noticed something from people who lose their Properties in the United States that go for Loss Mitigation, the Bank recovers all the debt, Principal, Interest and any additional Penalty, all this Financed at a better interest rate, and they recover all their debt, and no one raises any objection to it. I understand that the Banks are no better than us Creditors who loaned money to the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico to help with its Infrastructure and have additional money for Capital improvements. They accepted it, they wasted it improperly, and now they do not want to pay, so let them be responsible.

Case # 17-03283-LTS

Claim # 3078

The Amounts objected to herein present unearned or unpaid interest by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; they have never mentioned whether they will pay since these commitments were acquired prior to their Bankruptcy Claim.

Evidence is submitted as to which Company was Responsible for the purchase of these Bonds if there were any problems with the Ownership of the Bonds.

Thank you very much for allowing me to formally file my objection and for your willingness to exclude me from my original claim in Federal Court.

I file this objection before the Honorable United States Federal Court Judge Laura Taylor Swain.

SINCERELY,
